John Slater.

Slater, the test medium and psychic, appeared before a good audience last evening, but owing to a severe cold gave no manifestations. It was apparent to the audience that he was suffering also in a mental way that could be understood by none but himself.

This was a great disappointment to those who attended, as Mr. Slater's reputation is world-wide, and he is spoken of by the press and public as the most wonderful man of the age.

He will appear this evening, however, at Odd Fellows' Hall, and those who would like to interview him today may do so at the Arlington.

ALL SORTS.

There is a Fulton & McFarland safe for sale at the Sheriff's office. It is 34x39 inches.

Joe Platt left for San Francisco last evening to purchase a new stock of Spring goods.

Young Hanfan, of Empire, was brought to Carson yesterday to have a wound dressed, which was caused by his being thrown out of a cart drawn by a Billy goat. His knee cap was nearly cut off, and the cord was thought to be severed, but the attending physician pronounced it merely an ugly laceration.

No Fake.

Dan Brady and Jack Shea had a fight in front of the Arlington yesterday, which was not a fake in any sense of the word.

Shea stepped up to Brady and accused him of stating that he had licked him in six rounds, in San Francisco, which Brady said was so. Shea then called Brady a liar, besides some other hard names, and struck him. It was give and take for a few moments, when Brady went into Hawkins' cigar store to get off his overcoat. Before they could resume hostilities the Sheriff arrested Shea, but let go of him to arrest a man who interfered. Shea and his partner procured a buggy and lit out, and were shortly afterward followed by the Sheriff on horseback.

Those who witnessed the scrap say that during clinches Shea attempted to gouge Brady's eyes out. During the fracas Brady slipped and fell; Shea attempted to kick him, but was prevented by Dan O'Keefe. Shea is still at large.
